

On the way to vibrant health thanks to Robin

Dear Robin,

At this time of year I always like to pause and reflect upon what I am most grateful for in my life. Meeting you this year has certainly been a blessing and I am giving thanks and gratitude back to you.

I had been praying for an answer to my long suffering health challenges and you have been instrumental in helping me finally get back to the road of vibrant well being. For this I will be eternally grateful, as you have given me the gift of myself; my joy, my exuberance for living, my love of people and my passion for adventure. All these qualities were covered over in a shroud of darkness. I am slowly seeing the light and from this springs the most magnificent joy of love for you. Thank you dear lovely, crazy, funny lady for seeing me through my darkest hour. My heart is singing praises for you.

With tremendous respect and gratitude,

Carol
